

S.E.W.U.U.C. CHORALFEST!

Olympia Brown Unitarian Universalist Church has the honor this year of hosting the Southeast Wisconsin Unitarian Universalist Congregations (SEWUUC). In 1987, Olympia Brown hosted the first Choralfest. On February 18th, 2012 it will be OBUUC's fifth time hosting this beautiful event. Five UU church choirs from Southeastern Wisconsin will be participating in this year's event. They are:

Lake Country UU Church (Hartland)
Mukwonago UU Church
UC North UU Church (Mequon)
Bradford UU Church (Kenosha)
UU Church West (Brookfield)

There will be a reception after the concert at OBUUC for the participants. Many church members have asked how they can help. Here is how:

Set up: Making coffee, filling water pitchers, washing dishes, keeping things flowing throughout the day at OBUUC and First Presbyterian Church. I will also need volunteers to help setup for the reception (during concert) to be held back at OBUUC following the concert.

Shifts are organized in two-hour increments. Times are:

9:30-11:30am
11:30-1:30pm
1:30-3:30pm.

I also will need 1 person at OBUUC and 2 people at First Presbyterian.

Transport: Tony Pavao needs someone who can haul risers we are borrowing from Horlick High School to and from the church, please contact Tony at: 262-636-3079.

Clean up: cleaning First Presbyterian during and after concert, cleaning OBUUC before concert and after reception.

First Presbyterian clean up times are: 2:30pm-after concert.

OBUUC clean up times are: 1:30-2:30pm, and after reception.

Culinary skills: Desserts and fruit needed for reception following the concert.

Financial: Choralfest is not intended as a fundraiser; however free-will offering is taken to cover the cost.

Please consider volunteering for this wonderful event. If you volunteer your culinary skills or other help now, we'll send you a reminder closer to the date.

Please make your selections on the next page.

Thank you in advance for your time and assistance in making Choralfest 2011 successful!

Please return by February 10th
